

Please leave Indiana telephone privacy law alone. We received 6-10 calls per week until signing the no call list. My right to privacy is very important, and unwanted telemarketers wanting money or me to have the latest credit card is not a nusince. Leave the law alone.